

Programm

Nachwuchsworkshop „Umwelt- und Ressourcenökonomie“ 9.–10. Februar 2015 Universität Hamburg

Montag, 9.2.2015

09:00-09:15	Ankunft und Registrierung
09:15-09:30	Begrüßung
09:30-11:00	Session 1: Anpassung an Klimawandel Chair: Claudia Schwirplies	Session 2: Förderung erneuerbarer Energien Chair: Johannes Jarke
	Gabriel Bachner (Uni Graz) „Land Transport Systems under Climate Change: A Macroeconomic Assessment of Impacts and Adaptation Measures for the Case of Austria“	Nils Günter May (DIW Berlin) “Intermittency of Wind Power: The Impact of the Market Premium Scheme and Alternative Policies“
	Marius Paschen (Uni Oldenburg) “Adapting long-lived infrastructure to uncertain and transient change“	Kira Lancker (Uni Kiel) “Learning spillovers, increasing marginal costs and the efficiency of differentiated renewable energy support policies“
	Claudia Schwirplies (Uni Kassel) “Adaptation vs. climate protection: Responses to climate change and policy preferences of individuals in China, Germany, and the USA“	Johannes Jarke (Uni Hamburg) “Do Renewable Energy Policies Reduce Emissions? On Caps and Inter-Sectoral Leakage“
11:00-11:30	Pause
11:30-12:30	Session 3: Umweltregulierung und die Standortwahl von Unternehmen Chair: Daniel Nachtigall	Session 4: Strommärkte und Stromversorgung Chair: Grischa Perino
	Melanie Hiller (Viadrina) “Border Adjustments: Avoiding Carbon Leakage while Restoring Competition Neutrality?“	Roland Kube (Uni Münster) „Local effects of electrification policies on environmental quality - Evidence from Brazil“

	Daniel Nachtigall (FU Berlin) „Optimal dynamic carbon pricing under firm relocation“	Martin Baikowski (Uni Münster) “On the importance of electricity market design parameters”
12:30-14:00	Mittagessen + Pause
14:00-15:15	Panelsession: Umwelt- und Energieökonomik in der Politikberatung Prof. Dr. Andreas Löschel (Universität Münster) PD Dr. Christian Growitsch (HWWI Hamburg) Chair: Andreas Lange
15:15-15:45	Pause
15:45-16:45	Session 5: Sozialer Status Chair: Andreas Lange  Martin Malte (FernUni Hagen) „Social Comparisons and External Effects“	Session 6: Anpassung an Katastrophen Chair: Jascha Tutt  Marie-Catherine Riekhof (Uni Kiel) “Ownership of the Commons and Informal Insurance against Climate Shocks”
	Sophie-Lian Zhou (Uni Bonn) “Conspicuous Conservation and Balanced Growth Path: An Uzawa-Lucas Model with Leisure Choice, Environmental Externality and Social Status”	Jascha Tutt (Uni Hamburg) “Behavioral Responses on Natural Disasters: Empirical Evidence from a Natural Experiment in Germany”
16:45-17:00	Pause
17:00-18:00	Session 7: Empirische Studien Chair: Jing Dai  Robert Germeshausen (ZEW Mannheim) “Investigating the Influence of Firm Characteristics on the Ability to Exercise Market Power - A Stochastic Frontier Analysis Approach with an Application to the Iron Ore Market”	Session 8: Freiwillige Beiträge Chair: Andreas Lange  Gunnar Gutsche (Uni Kassel) “The importance of sustainability and transparency labels in investment decisions between conventional and sustainable mutual funds”
	Jing Dai (Uni Kassel) “An empirical analysis of attitudes towards distributional effects of the energy transition in Germany”	Martin Kesternich (ZEW Mannheim) “The impact of matching grants and price rebates on the demand for voluntary carbon offsets: Field experimental evidence from the long-distance bus market in Germany”
18:30-20:30	Gemeinsames Abendessen

Dienstag, 10.2.2015

09:15-10:45	Session 9: Kooperation und Asymmetrie Chair: Israel Waichman  Stephan Wolf (Uni Freiburg) „Intergenerationelle Ressourcenverteilung hinter dem Rawlsschen Schleier: Ein ökonomisches Experiment“  Achim Hagen (Uni Oldenburg) „International environmental agreements with asymmetric countries: climate clubs vs. global cooperation“  Israel Waichman (Uni Heidelberg) „Revising the Common View: Asymmetry can Improve the Chances of Avoiding Catastrophic Climate Change“	Session 10: Besteuerung von Treibhausgasen Chair: Grischa Perino  Max Franks (PIK und TU Berlin) „Why finance ministers favor carbon taxes, even if they do not take climate change into account“  Linus Mattauch (MCC) „A public finance perspective on climate policy: Six interactions that may enhance welfare“  Karl Zimmermann (TU Berlin) „Time Consistency Aspects of non-cooperative Carbon Taxation“
10:45-11:00	Pause
11:00-12:30	Session 11: Subjektive Einschätzungen Chair: Sonja Köke  Moritz Drupp (Uni Kiel) „Discounting Disentangled: An expert survey on the determinants of the long-term social discount rate“  Sonja Köke (Uni Hamburg) „The Ranking Measure of Life Satisfaction: a Constructive Critique“	Session 12: Umweltkatastrophen Chair: Nicole Glanemann  Christin Erb (Uni Bern) „Do We Need to Adapt? Heat Waves and their Impact on Regional Welfare in Switzerland“  Malte Jahn (HWWI) „Regional costs and benefits of adaptation to extreme weather events: A SCGE-based analysis“  Nicole Glanemann (Uni Hamburg) „Global Warming and a Potential Tipping Point in the Atlantic Thermohaline Circulation: The Role of Risk Aversion“
12:30-14:00	Mittagessen

14:00–15:00	Session 13: Instrumente – Theorie Chair: Johannes Jarke Sarina Steinmann (Uni Bern) „A Second Best Optimal Solution for Pollution Control in Multi-Polluter Networks with Heterogeneously Distributed Pollution“ Tobias Pfrommer (Uni Heidelberg) “Learning by Negligence - Torts, Experimentation, and the Value of Information“	Session 14: Politische Ökonomik Chair: Robert Schmidt Joschka Gerigk (ETH Zürich) „Lobbying, environmental policy, and international competitiveness“ Philipp Richter (DIW Berlin) “Strategic Environmental Policy in General Equilibrium“
15:00	Verabschiedung

Alle Sessions mit ungerader Nummer und die Panelveranstaltungen finden in Raum 4011/13 und die Sessions mit gerader Nummer in Raum 4030/31 statt.

Veranstaltungsort

Der Workshop findet in den Räumen des Hamburg Center for Health Economics (HCHE) in der Esplanade 36 statt (das ist das Gebäude der Spielbank). Die Lage des Gebäudes und des Einganges entnehmen Sie bitte der beiliegenden Wegbeschreibung. Die Räume befinden sich im 4. Stock.

Verpflegung

Die Mittagessen (Buffet-Style) und Kaffeepausen finden im Foyer des HCHE statt.

Unterkunft

Eine Unterkunft müssen Sie in Eigenregie organisieren. Die Kosten werden nicht vom Veranstalter übernommen.